New System Good Despite Some 'Bugs'

In spite of some errors and delays, Assistant Superintendent Warren Polley summed up Antioch High's first venture into data processing for the making up of student schedules as "generally good."

"We always have some mistakes and some re-scheduling to do," said Mr. Polley. "It's inevitable, with 1,000 students. And of course, with an entirely new system, there's bound to be some confusion. But I'd say things went pretty well, and this system saves a tremendous amount of time and paper work."

The errors were made, not by the machines, but by the people who fed the information into the machine, Polley pointed out. A good share of the trouble came from students who failed to come in ahead of time to give counselors the necessary information. All the students had been notified that they should do this, but some did not.

Then there were students who failed courses, so that their programs had to be changed. And those who changed their minds as to taking a certain course.

Some of the confusion was caused by students' failure to understand the change in numbering of periods. The half-hour lunch periods were formerly numbered 4A, 4B, 5A and 5B. This year these periods were re-numbered 4, 5, 6 and 7. A student who had a course during these periods would find himself scheduled for perhaps, periods 4 and 5 for one course, and would assume he had been scheduled for two full-length periods.

Polley explained that all schedules had been made up by August 29, from information gained by the counselors in consultation with students. The number of students who wished to take a certain course, plus the number of teachers available to teach the subject, plus the periods available, would be fed into the machine, giving class sizes.

Counselors handled all the machine work of scheduling the students. However, each teacher will use the machine for the individual work of grading each student for report cards.

In cases where errors had been made in scheduling of students for classes or in cases where students had not been scheduled, the corrections were made last week by counselors without use of the machine, Polley said. He said he believed all necessary changes had been made by Friday.

Fog Causes Collision

Brad Ipsen, 19, of Rt. 2, Antioch, was injured in a two-car collision last Thursday morning, Sept. 7, at Route 134 and Grub Hill Rd. Brad, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leyton Ipsen, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital with knee and throat injuries. A member of the family said a steelworker's hard hat he was wearing saved him from bad head injuries. The accident occurred about 7:30 a.m., as Ipsen was driving to work. Fog obscured visibility. The car driven by Ipsen collided in the intersection with a car driven by Donald L. St. Aubin of 1320 Kildeer Drive, Round Lake.

St. Aubin's car was southbound on Grub Hill Road. It was struck by Ipsen's car after St. Aubin had stopped for a stop sign. Ipsen was charged with driving too fast for conditions and St. Aubin with not yielding the right-of-way after stopping for a Stop sign.

Both cars were demolished. St. Aubin was treated at the hospital and released.

A Medal For Pfc. Goelz

The parents of Edward Goelz, Indian Point, were presented with a Purple Heart awarded to him posthumously last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goelz were notified that the medal would be presented to them at their home at 8 p.m. Sept. 6. Lieut. Thomas J. Ralph, stationed at Fort Sheridan, presented the Purple Heart to the Goelz's. Pfc. Edward Goelz was killed in Viet Nam on July 26. He received head injuries while on security patrol. He was a 1965 graduate of Antioch Community High School.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by one brother, James, 12, who attends Grass Lake School; and three sisters, Georgia, 18, Ginger, 16, and Gloria, 3.

1,000 Boy Scouts To Attend Camporee

You're at Placerville, prospecting for gold. There's been no rain for 3 months, and water is scarce. Your water bags are empty. In fact the only water around is in a stagnant pool. It's muddy and probably contaminated. You've got an ore pan and two matches, however. Somehow you've got to produce a quart of water that's safe to drink.

A thousand Lake County Boy Scouts will be wrestling with problems such as that one when they attend the Gold Rush Camporee Sept. 15-17 at Camp Sol R. Crown northwest of Antioch.

"This camporee contains all the romance and adventure of the California Gold Rush of '49," said Fred Piest of Libertyville. He's chairman of the camping committee of the Northwest District of the Boy Scouts of America, sponsor of the event. The district includes all Cub packs, Scout troops, and Explorer posts in the western half of Lake County.

"Some 30 Scout troops are expected at our camporee," Piest said. "Of course there's the fun and fellowship of the event, but there's a serious side to it, too."

"For one thing," he continued, "a camporee gives each boy a chance to learn first hand about our great national heritage: the outdoors. But, it also makes him come to grips with honest-to-goodness problems of outdoor camping. He has to develop, cooperatively with others in his six-boy patrol, strategies and techniques for dealing with real problems."

For example, besides the water problem other problems deal with following a trail and decoding a "secret" message, locating and sketching a campsite in reference to prominent landmarks, making certain camping equipment, first aid, and choosing equipment on the basis of its utility. Each troop is rated according to 32 criteria, and the troop that shows the best camping skills and techniques earns the Top Notcher Award. Of course there's be streamers and patches available, too.

Naturally a complex event such as the Gold Rush Camporee doesn't just happen. It takes careful organization and planning—in this case more than 40 district Scouters and Commissioners are involved. Heading the committee is Piest. Other committee members include Lee Gagnebin of Spring Grove, Larry Vuilleumot of Libertyville, Kent Newman of Gages Lake and James Nation of Mundelein.

Central High Schedules Dance

On Friday, Sept. 15 beginning at 8 o'clock the Junior Class of Central High School of Salem will have its first dance of the season. They claim that the "Psychedelic" lights and sounds of "The Children of Time" will be out of this world.

All are invited to an evening of enjoyment.

Mayor's Truck Stolen, Abandoned

A pickup truck belonging to Mayor Ray Toft was stolen from the driveway of his home early Thursday morning and found later the same day, abandoned in Benton, Wis.

Mayor Toft had reported his truck stolen to Antioch police. The sheriff of Lafayette County, Wis., notified him about noon that the truck had been found near a lumberyard in Benton. Toft said it was not damaged.

Steal Parts From Motor Of Boat

In spite of the fact that Ray Johnson of Petite Lake had both his boat and motor chained and padlocked, thieves managed last Saturday night to strip parts from the motor and steal them.

Johnson, who lives at 610 Circle Drive, said he hadn't had time to figure up his loss but knew they had taken the generator which cost about $70.

Johnson discovered the theft Sunday morning and said he thought it occurred about 11 p.m. Saturday. "I thought I heard voices about that time, and the dog barked," he said. "I turned on the light down by the shore and looked out the window. Maybe that scared them away."

Johnson said they removed the shroud from his motor and turned it upside down on the seat.

Sheriff's deputies said there is a rash of boat and motor thefts throughout the area, particularly at the time summer residents return to the city and thieves know that many residents are only in the lakes area on weekends.

Chief Deputy Jake Repp said apprehension of the thieves is difficult because they usually come by boat and no one sees them.

Police Crack Down on Speeders

Antioch police are cracking down on speeding in the village, particularly in school zones. The area near Antioch High School has proved a particularly troublesome spot, they said.

The police have written 23 tickets since Sept. 1, 14 of them in the last weekend. There has been some trouble with motorists passing stopped school buses also, Sgt. Jack Davis reports.

Student Enrollment Increases at ACHS

A total of 1,050 students are enrolled at Antioch Community High School this year, as compared with 1,000 last year, and the effects of crowding are being felt, according to Assistant Superintendent Warren Polley.

The enrollment includes 305 freshmen, 202 sophomores, 305 juniors and 235 seniors. Last year's graduating class numbered 193.

A total of 1,110 students are enrolled in the Antioch Grade Schools. This includes 504 at the Antioch building, 471 at Oakland and 135 at Channel Lake.

Pack 80 Ends Season With Family Picnic

Cub Scout Pack 80 of Grass Lake held their annual family picnic at the Chain O' Lakes State Park on August 20.

An early afternoon shower failed to dampen the boys' spirits, and after a short delay games were conducted by the pack committee members. The main event of the day was a money hunt. Coins were mixed into a pile of sawdust and the children were divided into different groups to dig for the money. The supply of coins was replenished after each group. It was a little messy but a lot of fun.

The picnic concluded the summer activities and the boys are anxiously awaiting the start of the fall program. The first Pack meeting will be Sept. 28 at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Any boys interested in joining the pack should attend the meeting with their parents.

Plaque From Soldier Thanks Antioch People

The people of Antioch received a plaque from Viet Nam last week.

The plaque is the work of Frank L. Wais, a young man from Antioch now serving in Viet Nam. Although the plaque was mailed to Postmaster Joe Wolf, the message lettered on it is an expression of thanks to the people of the Antioch area for the packages mailed to Antioch area men in Viet Nam through the work of Project Viet Nam.

Project Viet Nam, as all Antioch residents know, is the project of the personnel at the Antioch post office, participated in by a good share of the residents of the area. Packages of items needed by servicemen are mailed to the men from this area—the area served by the Antioch post office—regularly.

The lettering on Frank's plaque reads, "To the Town of Antioch, Illinois, To Extend our Appreciation and Thanks for your thoughtful consideration of the Men and Women From Antioch Township Who Are in Vietnam, 1967."

Here is the letter that Frank sent with the plaque: It has been a long time since my last letter to you, so I have taken some of my spare time to make a token of appreciation to Antioch.

I would like to have this plaque represent every man and woman in Viet Nam who has received gifts from you.

I know they would feel as I do, that Project Viet Nam is a very nice thing for the home folks to do for us who are so far away from home. Thank you very much for helping your fighting men.

Sincerely yours,

The plaque will be displayed at the Post Office, along with the many other displays relating to Project Viet Nam and the Antioch men and women serving in Viet Nam.

Donors to Project Viet Nam are Charming Products, Pickard, Inc., State Bank, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Price, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Nelson, Lucille Cilik and Mr. and Mrs. Greslik.

One of Antioch's soldiers in Viet Nam, Frank Wais, made this plaque and sent it to Postmaster Joe Wolf to express the appreciation of all the Antioch men in Viet Nam to Antioch's townspeople for project Viet Nam.

Camp Lake Women Killed at Train Crossing

A Trevor woman was killed Tuesday morning, Sept. 12, at 6:40 a.m. when the car she was driving was struck by a Soo Line freight train at the railroad crossing near her home in Camp Lake, Ill.

Mrs. Esther E. (Fred) Herdt, Rt. 1, Box 135, Trevor, was returning home after taking her husband to work. Kenosha County deputies said she apparently never saw the approaching train and was killed instantly. Visibility was poor because of fog, and is obstructed at the crossing by hill and shrubbery. The car was dragged 83 feet by the impact and Mrs. Herdt's body was thrown from the car.

Mrs. Herdt was going south on 272nd St. and the train approached the 272nd St.

crossing going east. Mrs. Herdt's car was on the track when struck. The engineer said that when he saw the car it was creeping slowly across the tracks.

Nearby residents said a school bus had crossed the tracks only about ten minutes before Mrs. Herdt's car was struck.

Mrs. Herdt was born October 30, 1917, in Chicago, the daughter of the late Emil and Margaret Dumke. She resided in Chicago until moving to Camp Lake in 1961.

She married Fred Herdt, Sr., on July 6, 1935, at Waukegan. Survivors are her husband, Fred; one daughter, Mrs. Margie (Ronald) Morrical of Kankakee; one son, Fred Herdt, Jr., of Carmichael, Calif.; three brothers, Clarence Dumke, Chicago, LeRoy and Harold Dumke, both of Forest Park, Ill., and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday (today) at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch, with the Rev. Wilton Anderson of St. Stephen Lutheran Church officiating. Interment will be in Concordia Cemetery at Forest Park.

Rescue Squad Calls Made Last Week

The Antioch Rescue Squad aided the following people in calls made last week: Sept. 8, Dolores Molgaard, Rt. 3, Antioch was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital.

Sept. 11, Alma Geis, Voltz Lake, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital.

Sept. 11, Mary Pflesser, 59, of 105 Hawthorne, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital when she had difficulty breathing.

Sept. 9, Esther Bielek, 19, of Rt. 4, Antioch, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital following a car accident near the Angels on Route 83.

Sept. 10, a Mr. Doetsch, 85 years old, of Rte. C.J. Kenosha County, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital with a knee injury.

Sept. 10, Mary Anne Blalock, 27, of Box 53, Lake Villa, and her two children, a four-month-old baby and a 5 year old child, were taken to an Antioch doctor following a traffic accident on Rte. 83 about one mile south of Rte. 173.

Tavern Owners Plan Annual Fall Party

Plans for the annual Fall Party of the Tavern Owners Association of Lake County will be discussed at the group's meeting at Brae-Lock Country Club, Gages Lake, at 3 p.m. Thursday.

Association President Ki Serzynski announced that he would appoint committees to work out the details at the meeting.

Also on the agenda, according to Serzynski, is a report from Field Representative Don Landry on the progress of the new membership drive and a report on recent meetings designed to weld existing associations into one county-wide organization.

Golf Outing To Benefit Rescue Squad

The Antioch Rescue Squad will be the beneficiary of the big golf tournament scheduled for next Wednesday, Sept. 20, at George Diamond's Country Club.

The tournament will stretch out into a full day of activity with lunch and dinner included in the event. Non-golfers may wish to attend dinner.

All proceeds of the golf outing will go to the Antioch Rescue Squad. Tickets are available at the State Bank of Antioch and at the First National Bank, also from Rescue Squad members.

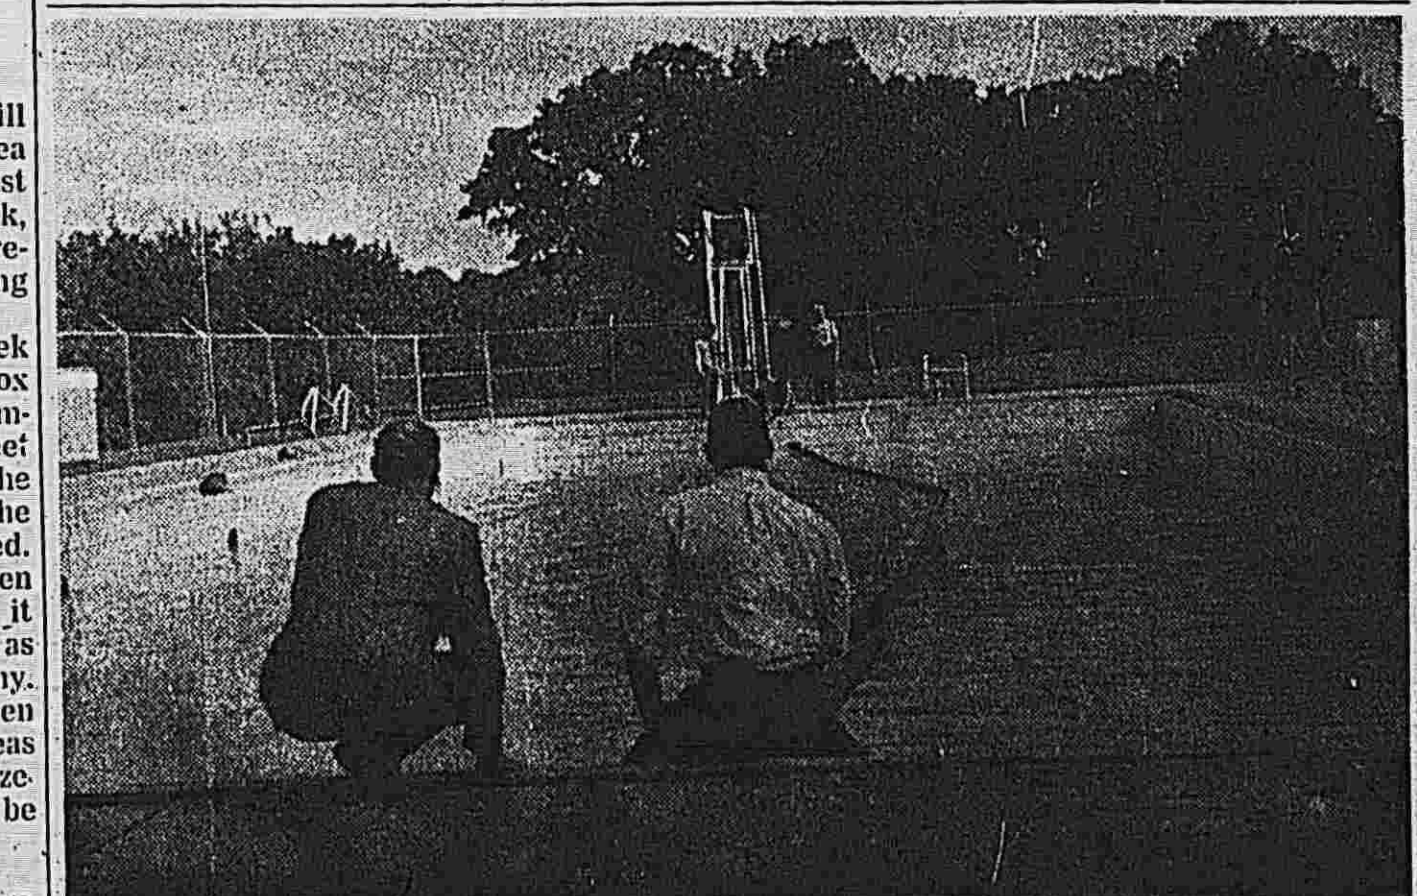

More Fill Hauled To Parking Area

About 400 yards of fill were dumped into the area behind the stores on the east side of Main St. last week, as work progressed in preparing the area for a parking lot.

The fill hauled last week was donated by Leo J. Fox Excavating & Trucking. Employees of the village street department are doing the work on the area, with all the fill to date being donated.

A gravel road has been built through the area and it is being used at present as a parking area by many. When enough fill has been hauled in to fill low areas and level the ground, a sizeable parking area will be created.

Mrs. Kathryn Farnsworth returned home recently after spending two months in Florida with friends and relatives.

No Progress

There seems to be almost no limit to the achievements of man when he puts his mind to it. The radio, the television, the airplane, rockets to explore outer space—they were incredible achievements. A century ago, men would have scoffed at the idea that these things would ever have become commonplace.

There's still one field where very little progress seems to have been made. In fact, we seem to be sliding backward in this area. That's in finding a way to dispose of the waste we create without so defiling our environment that it becomes unfit to live in.

Industry grows, and we produce more and better equipment to make living easier. And the waste matters of the manufacturing foul up our streams until they become dead cesspools covered with green scum in which desirable marine life is strangled.

The population grows, and more waste is poured into the streams. Motors and smokestacks pollute the air. To the noise of motor vehicles and industry is added the crack of the sonic boom to assault the ear.

In all the wondrous scientific strides that have been made, how much progress has been made in disposing of the garbage of daily living? The city garbage dump is still with us, discarded cars and trucks are a growing problem, and sewage disposal without killing the nation's streams is still a dream.

There's been a lot of talk about the damage we're doing to our nation's natural resources, but no real action. The best brains in the nation are too busy finding a way to reach the moon, and building faster cars and planes, to use their ingenuity in finding a really practical way to dispose of garbage and sewage.

A few stirrings of alarm are heard as one of the Great Lakes becomes a dead sea of waste, but it will be many years before the alarm seeps back to take in the numerous streams that mingle with that lake, and all the others. And no one is quite ready to spend enough money for an all-out assault on the problem.

This is not a neighborhood problem that can be satisfactorily solved by one community. The federal government will have to be the means to first, find better methods of disposing of waste, and second, of policing waterways that cross state lines. And the federal government will not bend its full efforts to the matter until enough of the people's representatives are convinced that their particular constituents are disturbed about pollution.

Clean streams may, eventually, become more important than better highways. They may, in fact, become an absolute necessity.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU OURKIN

The columnists are having themselves quite a time belittling the candidacy of Shirley Temple Black for a Congressional seat from California, but some of the quips seem a bit labored.

After all, what's wrong with a former movie personality entering politics? In many instances they are exposed to business and political leaders during their careers in the theatre and even if they lack formal education they can absorb knowledge through their associations.

Mrs. Black's predecessors in making the shift from the Never-Never Land of Hollywood to the Never-Never Land of politics seem to be doing a creditable job in Washington. Senator George Murphy is moving into the prestigious Establishment and in Sacramento, California Governor Reagan is doing better than was anticipated. So maybe Shirley can show the wisecracks a thing or two if she can muster enough votes to win a trip to Washington.

Michigan Governor George Romney is due in Lake County Republican Federation Dinner, but the sponsor may be just a little unhappy with Romney's current status as a potential GOP candidate for President.

Gov. Romney recently asserted he had been "brainwashed" by military and civilian officials during a recent "fact-finding" tour of the Far East and the phrase has already come back to haunt him.

Apparently none of the other governors on the tour received the same impression from their briefing sessions and the Michigan Governor is strengthening the feeling that his grasp of foreign affairs is something less than adequate for a President.

The Lake County Civic League will again confer with the County Board's Finance Committee during budget preparation time, but it is unlikely that any far-reaching recommendations will be given, or if given, accepted. When first organized the Civic League, a taxpayers' watchdog group, was highly effective and threw some harsh light on the various taxing bodies, but particularly the townships.

The effectiveness was due largely to Walton R. L. Taylor the Executive Director, who was a "carpetbagger" and was not worried about stepping on tender toes. As could be expected few public officials shed tears when Taylor moved on and since his departure the prestige and effectiveness of the Civic League has dwindled.

It might be interesting if the League Committee were to sit down with officials of the Association of Collective Taxpayers, many of whom regularly attend county board meetings to watch the actual functioning of the county board as it spends the appropriated funds.

Normally a Secretary of State in Illinois would be considered virtually unbeatable in a bid for re-election, but Paul Powell, now serving his first term after a long career in the Illinois General Assembly, is having his troubles. Powell, a firm believer in the political dictum "To the victors belong the spoils," has been enmeshed in several unfortunate episodes involving key employees in his office, a factor which could well militate against his reelection.

That's why it is rather surprising to see so little interest in the office being displayed by top Republicans. Perhaps they all feel that the son of the late Charles Carpenter should inherit the office as part of the family estate.

Poland Becomes Industrial Nation

By Senator Paul Simon (State Senator Paul Timon of Troy, Ill., former newspaper publisher and author of four books, recently returned from a trip through the Middle East and Europe. The following is one of the stories he has written of his experiences.)

This year a major event is expected to take place which will go largely unnoticed except in economic circles: Poland will become the 20th nation in the world to be more economically dependent on its industrial rather than its agricultural export.

In 1966 Poland's export of non-agricultural goods reached 49 per cent, and every economic indicator so far in 1967 points to an industrial export over 50 per cent.

It is but one of a host of indications of major shifts in the Polish scene—shifts in everything but politics, and even there the economic changes probably will result in some political modifications.

My last visit to the country was in 1957, and in 10 years the economic improvements on the Polish domestic scene are dramatic. They are visible in the number of new buildings and in their improved quality, in the dress of the Polish people, in the streetcars and buses, and in the numbers of privately owned cars on the streets.

Politically there has been little obvious change. There is probably more freedom for the individual citizen here than in any Communist country outside of Yugoslavia. Poles are permitted to voice criticism of Communism without being tossed into prison, but they have learned that it is prudent to be cautious in that criticism unless they trust the person to whom they are talking.

Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński, strong defender of religious freedom in the face of a hostile government, was out of Warsaw on vacation, but I met in his residence with spokesmen from the Roman Catholic Church in Poland. In essence, they said that things are about the same as they have been for the last 10 years. "Not much better and not much worse," as one stated.

A Polish author and historian with whom I met refused to discuss current events at all other than to state he is not a Communist. "My interest is the history of Poland prior to the end of World War II," he told me. "I have no interest at all in current affairs."

Any writer of past events is interested in history as it unfolds each day and it seemed obvious to me that

Newport Thanks Antioch Fire Dept.

The Antioch Fire Department recently received a letter thanking them for their quick action in answering a call which was not actually in their territory. The letter, from the Newport Fire Dept., shows the cooperation with which the local departments work. Following is a copy of the letter:

Sept. 8, 1967
Antioch Fire Department
Antioch, Illinois
Brother Firemen,

A short time ago you received a call for a garage fire at the Schnoover Egg Farm on Hunt Club Road, north of 173. You, knowing it was Newport's fire, put a truck on the road to the scene and then called this dept. By doing this as far as I am concerned, saved a barn containing five thousand chickens from being destroyed. If all depts. would respond like this it would be wonderful. Your truck was the first on the scene. You effectively laid three lines out; by this you had a good control in no time. Your men knowing that the fire wasn't in their district, still put all their efforts into saving what they could. This to me was, and always will be, a compliment to your department.

The Schnoovers have asked to thank all of you for all of your assistance. Also on behalf of the Newport Fire Dept. I thank you. If there is any time we can assist you please feel free to call. (Let's hope it's NOT in the time of any emergency). Again thank you very much for your assistance.

Respectfully
Newport Fire Dept.

But there are also signs of hope politically.

Poland followed the Soviet line completely in the recent Middle East conflict—and Polish public opinion was overwhelmingly against the governmental policy.

Public opposition to the government stand on the Middle East conflict reached such a point that Wladyslaw Gomułka, the man who in fact runs the government though he holds no official position in it, made a major speech denouncing Israel and criticizing Polish citizens who side with Israel.

People with whom I talked seemed in agreement that Poland has reached the point of economic maturity that it would have been possible on his occasion to at least take a neutral position.

"Economic independence and political independence will both increase," one official told me.

This does not mean an overthrow of the Communist regime. Though the large majority of people are anti-Communist in their attitude, internal political changes are likely to come slowly. But as Poland gears its economy for the Western market, so it can be expected to slowly modify its foreign policy, reacting more and more to Western thinking, with which its leaders are now dealing.

Leading in economic planning are talking of more decentralization of authority in order to cure some of the obvious economic ills which still plague Poland. They are taking some of their lessons from the West.

What effect this economic growth will have on the political scene is not certain, but Poland will become more free to make major decisions in Warsaw, and not have them made for the Poles in Moscow.

"How can I get my money back? I just dialed a wrong number."

Whether it's your finger that slips or our equipment, we don't want you to pay for a wrong number. Here's what to do so you won't be charged.

Dial the Operator. Tell her you've reached a wrong number. She'll see that you're not billed for the call and help you get the right number.

If you've called from a pay phone, either local or Long Distance, the Operator will either connect you with the number you wanted, or see that a cash refund is mailed to you.

Here's another tip that will help us give you better service.

If you are ever cut off—or get a bad connection—during a Long Distance call, hang up. Then the person who placed the call should dial the Long Distance Operator and tell her what's happened.

She'll get you a good connection, and make certain you aren't charged for the time your call was interrupted.

We offer these suggestions as part of our effort to help you get the most from your telephone service.

"Thanks for your help, Operator."

Wolf Commended For School Savings Program

Postmaster Joseph Wolf has been commended by Glen R. Johnson, National Director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, for his leadership and service to the Treasury Department's School Savings Program.

In a letter to the Postmaster, Mr. Johnson said "Today, the School Savings Program is more important than ever. Our children are growing up in a world of tension, of conflict. The challenges they must face are ever increasing. If they are to reap the full benefits of their American heritage they must be prepared to meet these challenges; they must be given positive goals for themselves and their country. The School Savings Program serves not only to teach the habit of thrift but to prepare our young people for some of the responsibilities they have as American citizens."

Many Antioch schools offer School Savings—part of the nationwide Savings Bonds Program. Savings Stamps in five denominations, from 10 cents to $5, are on sale at all times in the post office and on Stamp Day in schools. As pupils fill their albums—which are provided free—they exchange them for U. S. Savings Bonds at their bank.

Postmaster Wolf said "We are proud to offer this service to our young people. I know of no better way to teach thrift and civic responsibility than by encouraging our youth to buy Savings Stamps and Bonds. This is one way they all can share in America."

3 New Teachers Added At Music Center

Three unusually well-qualified teachers, a bandsman from Ft. Sheridan, a jazz expert, and a noted folk guitar teacher, have been added to the faculty of The Music Center of Lake County as the Fall term begins. Robert Christensen, director, said today.

He also said there are openings for many classes and individual instruction at the School even though nearly 300 persons had registered for classes by the end of the formal registration period last week. Classes begin September 21 and registration will be continued through September at the non-profit community music and arts school.

Among the classes with openings are: Understanding Music for adults (high school age and above), Life Drawing for adults, Exercise Through Dance for adults, Public Speaking, Folk Guitar and Carl Orff Music Classes for children 4 through 8 years of age.

The School offers instruction in all orchestral instruments as well as piano, voice and guitar and classes in Theory, Music Appreciation, Art, Drama and Dance as well as Ensemble playing. Tuition is based upon the ability to pay.

Purpose of the school is to offer the best instruction available and to make the fine arts an every day part of the life of each student, said Christensen.

The Music Center is headquartered at 1917 N. Sheridan Rd. in Lilac Cottage, Bowen Park, Waukegan. The School is a member of the National Guild of Community Music Schools and is the examining center for the National Guild of Piano Teachers of Austin, Texas.

The new teachers are: Edward Burnham, a member of the Fifth Army Band, will be teaching the French Horn. He has studied at the University of Indiana and privately with Philip Farkas, one of the leading French Horn teachers in this country. He also has performed with the Indianapolis and New Orleans Symphony orchestras. Erwin Helfer who will teach piano has lectured on jazz at the Music Center, the universities of Chicago, Iowa, Louisiana and elsewhere. He is a reviewer for Downbeat magazine, recorded an album called "Rough and Ready" and appeared at Orchestral Hall and on Channel 11, Chicago's educational television station. Miss Olivia Coleman, who like Mr. Helfer lives in Chicago, will teach folk guitar and piano. She is teaching the same subjects at Hull House. Also a composer, her works have been played in Chicago. She received her training at the St. Louis Conservatory, DePaul and Roosevelt Universities.

Schedules Inventory Party

Palette, Masque and Lyre plans to begin its new season by "taking inventory" of prospective talent in Antioch and surrounding communities. Devotees of theatre and of the arts are invited to the Community Room of the Savings and Loan Building in Antioch on Sunday, September 17, at 7:30 p.m.

Ken Smouse, the group's president said, "We're mounting four shows this season — 'Heidi,' 'Ready When You Are, C. B.', 'A Far Country,' and 'Room Service.' Some workshop productions are also being considered. Our inventory party will help our directors to have some idea of who is available for backstage work and onstage acting. The party will also be fun, we hope, for those who attend."

A. A. Sarazin, the Director of Audience Development of the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre, has agreed to be guest speaker for the evening. Refreshments will be served.

Information will be available at the meeting for the Awards Banquet, membership, parts in the season's shows, season tickets, and workshop activities. Those who wish to perform an audition may do so. Your Congressman...

handsome Washington townhouse a few blocks from the Capitol and the Supreme Court. It was a remark typical of her zest and adaptability to life.

It was a home in which she could, and did, entertain graciously.

But the Washington meaningful to Audrey McClory was not the Washington of the society pages and the cocktail circuit.

She most enjoyed small groups where she could get to know people. She was warm and friendly and gregarious. The nonsectarian Congressional Wives Prayer Group was important to her, and it met frequently in the McClory home.

Through another small women's club—a writing group of Congressional and Senatorial wives—she discovered and worked at a new talent. She was pleased and proud that she had finished 10 chapters of a book she tentatively titled "The Seedlings."

"It began one way," she would smile, "but it ended up being autobiographical."

She read not only the newspapers, but journals of writing. A charming, small room in the McClorys' townhouse "sold" the home she said. It is a study-furnished with some of the antiques she cherished. And since her husband had his office, this, she said, was her "office."

This, in other words, would be the center of the creative part of her life that was hers alone.

There are many official functions to which Congressmen and their wives must go and many people they must meet. But for her the woman in her writing and prayer groups became her closest friends. Audrey McClory was enormously proud of her husband's career. A great asset to her was living close enough to the Capitol so that when he was to speak on the floor of the House of Representatives, she could hasten over, sit in the gallery and listen.

Mr. McClory is a Member of the Inter Parliamentary Union, an organization of legislators from all over the world, even the Soviet Union, which meets twice a year for discussions aimed at promoting understanding.

Audrey McClory took to these meetings as much in her way as her husband. Partly because of her knowledge of French but more because of her interest in others, McClory praised her as a great asset at such sessions held in such diverse places as Canberra, Australia; Copenhagen, Denmark; and Tehran, Iran.

She loved tennis and went snorkeling and skiing with her husband and sons. She talked with great pride of her husband's accomplishments and with undisguised love of her daughter, her two sons and her three grandchildren. But Audrey McClory was also a very important person herself—alert, concerned, interested, and sensitive, she had a bedrock faith in integrity and what to her was right.

"The Seedlings" remains unfinished. But the philosophy of Audrey McClory is complete. To her, without honor and decency there was nothing. And for her, life was full.

Can you be moral in today's world and still feel you're exercising your God-given right to be free? What does the Bible have to say about it? Listen Sunday at 7:00 a.m., 8:00 a.m., and 9:30 a.m. to "FREEDOM AND MORAL STANDARDS."

20 years from now the electric heating in your home will still be one of the brightest ideas you ever had.

Only an electric heating system will be just as modern in twenty years as today. It will probably outlast your mortgage. (No other heating system can make that statement.)

Electric heat has other things going for it, too. Like flexibility, cleanliness, economy of installation, silence, trouble-free operation, odorlessness, and five different types of systems to choose from.

All of which adds up to keeping your home bright and modern for many years to come. And electricity is making it possible. Check into electric heat... the modern heat.

The Adrian Mueller's are the first family to move into Sequoia Terrace, the new subdivision northwest of Antioch. Extending a welcome from their new front door are Mrs. Mueller (Eunice), 5-year-old Beth, Adrian Mueller holding 20-month-old Steve.

First Occupants Of New Subdivision

The first home in Sequoia Terrace, the new subdivision in Antioch running from Hillside to North Ave., was occupied last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Mueller and children Beth and Steve were the first occupants of the subdivision. Their new home is a 6 room ranch style dwelling with front exterior of brick and vertical cedar siding.

Mr. Mueller is a teacher at Antioch High School and coaches the cross country team.

The second family to occupy a home in the subdivision moved in last week. Several homes are nearing completion.

Sequoia Terrace takes in 40 acres. The developers—John Blackman, Art Laursen, Victor Klimas and William Phillips—plan to open the subdivision in three units. The first one is the middle one-third of the area.

The middle unit will comprise 54 homes. Twenty-three lots in this section are sold, and twelve homes are expected to be finished by Christmas.

Lots have sold so fast, Blackman said, that the developers may open sales on lots in the second unit, the north one-third, soon. In all the subdivision will comprise 112 homes.

The modern subdivision has all facilities installed, with sewer and water service, blacktop roads, storm sewers, streets curbed and guttered and sidewalks. All utilities, including electric, will have underground service, so that there will be no utility poles throughout the subdivision.

The subdivision has restrictive covenants, Blackman said, to insure that good homes will be built. All lots must comprise 1,600 square feet.

The property was originally part of the Herman farm.

Sequoit Gridders Take Field Sat.

Coach Roy Nelson is making no predictions about Saturday's football game, the first one of the season for the Sequoits. But then, Roy never does predict what his team will do, other than a possible comment such as, "They're tough," or "Our boys will be out there to win."

The Antioch team will be facing Salem next Saturday.

at the Antioch High football field, with the sophomore game starting at noon. This is the first game of the season for the Antioch team, a non-conference event. Salem lost to Jefferson High last Saturday, 13-12.

Antioch lost its backfield stars by graduation last spring, and this year's team is an unknown quantity. However, Joe Pass will be returning at center, and four other seniors will be in the starting lineup.

In the defensive team, Nelson plans to play Smith and Jennrich at ends; Bazer and Effinger, tackles; Hollocker, middle guard; Davis, Drije and Mike Wells, line-backers; and Owens, Meyers and Barnett or Carlson half-backs. Senior Bill Nader is benched for this game with a twisted ankle, sustained in practice.

Antioch's gridders finished in second place in the Northwest Suburban conference last year, one-half game behind Lake Forest. Lake Forest had six wins and one tie; Antioch had six wins and one loss.

Losing such stars as full-back Ty Walls and quarterback Jerry Whitson, Antioch High will have a tough time finding replacements. Walls finished his football career with a scoring record second in all-time Lake County scorers, a three year total of 161 points.

Ralph Zank, junior, will start Saturday's game in the quarterback spot.

Harris Adds Sixth Feature Win

Duane Harris of Lake Villa, defending modified stock car champion at the Lake Geneva Speed Center, added his sixth win in feature racing Saturday night and moved up even closer on point leader Roger Otto of Burlington and the number two man, Bill Bohn of Kenosha.

Harris, who set fast time and came all the way from the back of the sixteen-car starting field, passed Ken Monroe of Pell Lake and then was off to score his third feature in the last five weeks. Bill Bohn, who was second, has won the other two features in this same period. Both are closing in on point leader Roger Otto who spun out of this race on the 22nd lap, finishing in 14th spot.

The feature race had only one restart with the only car not back in the lineup being Claude Potter. Jim Sullivan lost control and hit the wall nearly head on but after bending his steering arm slightly was able to continue and finished in 10th spot. Ken Monroe was the leader at the start and led more laps than most thought he could. Jr. Dodd ran second several laps and then was passed by Bohn but he couldn't get around the C-18 modified either. Sorce worked his way up and battled with Tom Anderson but never made the pass.

Bill Bohn won the fastest 10 lap heat as he averaged 59.15 MPH, winning over Bergsma and Anderson. Other heat race wins went to Paul Cameron, John Champlin, and Roger Otto.

The largest field of late models so far this season showed and made three heats necessary to satisfy all contenders. Winners were Mike Jacobovky, Rolf Illiwan, and Rick Schuyler. In the 20 lap feature Scuyler caught and passed Mel Schiederman and then Bruce Johnson came up to take the lead away from him on the very last lap. The cool weather field the attendance down to just over 1400 fans. Saturday night racing continues throughout all of September with the Norm Nelson Championship Race set for next Saturday, September 16. Two 40-lap feature races will highlight the evening.

ARCHERS' SEASON ON GARDNER

A special deer season for archers from Saturday, Oct. 14, to Sunday, Oct. 22, has been announced by James F. Gillett, refuge manager of the Gardner Division of the Mark Twain National Wildlife Refuge, near Quincy.

A thousand special permits will be issued beginning on Thursday, Sept. 14. Sixty-nine deer were bagged by archers in 1964, including a doe that weighed just under 200 pounds, the largest doe ever killed in Illinois.

Hunters must apply to the Mark Twain National Wildlife Refuge, P. O. Box 225, Quincy, Ill. 62301. The hunter's name, address, and the number of his 1967 Illinois state bow hunting permit must be included in the application.

Several islands in the Mississippi River total about 4,800 acres and comprise the Gardner Division of the Mark Twain National Wildlife Refuge located about 10 miles north of Quincy. The deer herd has increased to the point where control is necessary.

Hunters who obtain permits may scout the area on Friday, Oct. 13, the day before the special season begins. Access to the islands is by private boat and Illinois boating regulations will apply. U. S. Coast Guard life saving devices will be required for each hunter in each boat; boats operating at night must be lighted according to law, and operators of overloaded boats will be subject to arrest.

Robis Takes Feature At Speedway Track

Bill Robis of Antioch as he took the checkered flag in Sat. night's feature race.

It was Bill Robis' night at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday as the Antioch speedster became the eleventh different late model feature winner of the season. Robis lead all the way in the feature.

Robis took the lead in the very first lap with John Schmitz in second spot. Ralph Simmen spun in the fifth lap while among the leaders and scattered the cars everywhere. Simmen pulled off the track and the race continued.

Robis had built up a good lead when a red flag in the ninth lap cancelled that. In the bumper-to-bumper restart, Robis again pulled away from the field. Mike Wolff was in second spot and Jim Cossman was third at the half way point.

Cossman passed Wolff with five laps to go after these two put on a tremendous battle. Then Cossman closed the gap on Robis. With only one lap remaining, Cossman raced inside Robis and briefly tasted the lead, but Robis roared back and beat Cossman out of the fourth turn.

Cossman in trying to pass Robis, nearly lost second place to Wolff as Wolff came within five laps to go after these two put on a tremendous battle. Then Cossman closed the gap on Robis. With only one lap remaining, Cossman raced inside Robis and briefly tasted the lead, but Robis roared back and beat Cossman out of the fourth turn.

Antioch Little League will hold an open meeting September 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Antioch Methodist Church. Officers for the coming year will be elected, and plans for 1968 will be discussed. All are invited.

Salem took to the air six times and completed one pass, out of 8 tries and also had one intercepted.

Salem gained 305 yards rushing, Jefferson 259. Johnson and Meyers were the leading ground-gainers for Salem. Meyers carried the ball 16 times for 102 yards.

Jefferson had 14 first downs, Jefferson 17. Salem men fumbled once, Jefferson twice, while Salem recovered both Jefferson's fumbles and Jefferson recovered the Salem fumble.

Hunters, Look Again --- That 'Game' You Shoot May Be Something Else

This article is aimed directly at the hundreds of thousands of hunters who are taking to the fields and woods this fall in search of game.

Before you pull the trigger, know what you're firing at.

Sporting arms, from a single-shot .22 calibre rifle to a heavy big game weapon to a fast-shooting automatic scatter gun, are designed to kill birds and animals. They also can kill—or wound humans.

Each fall several hundred hunters return from fall outings via hearse. Thousands of others return with a load of bird shot or a rifle bullet to be dug out. Behind almost every hunting accident is one cause: carelessness. The hunter who blazes away at everything that moves runs a big risk of bagging a fellow hunter.

Never cross over or through a fence or climb a tree with a loaded gun. It might fall and discharge. Unload first and reload after crossing. Don't shoot at a hard, flat surface. Ricocheting bullets can carry long distances with killing power.

Even a small bore rifle has considerable range. Know where your bullet will stop before pulling the trigger.

Keep guns away from children. Never leave a weapon unattended without unloading it. Store guns and ammunition beyond reach of youngsters, preferably under lock and key.

Always carry a gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble. Keep the safety catch on until ready to shoot. Always be sure the barrel is clear of obstructions. A barrel clogged with mud or snow may burst.

Guns and alcohol don't mix. If you like a nip around camp, wait until you're through hunting for the day and all weapons are unloaded and cased.

Treat guns with respect at all times. They may be loaded, despite all precautions. Thus never point a weapon at something unless you plan to shoot it.

Awards Dinner To Climax Fishing Derby

The 1967 Chain O' Lakes Fishing Derby will be climaxed by an Awards Dinner to be held Thursday, Sept. 14, at Diamond's Country Club south of Antioch. The six Grand Prize winners of the Derby will receive Johnson Outboard Motors at the dinner.

The fishing contest lasted seven weeks, with resorts throughout the Chain O' Lakes area serving as claiming stations, where fishermen could enter the contest and register their prize catches.

Throughout the seven-week period there were 18 weekly prizes given for the three largest fish in each of various species. At Thursday night's Awards Dinner, the angler who registered the largest fish caught in each of the species will receive a Johnson Motor. The affair will be hosted by the Chain O' Lakes Resort Owners and Pepsi Cola General Bottlers of Chicago. Over $5,000 in prizes have been awarded to weekly winners.

Winners who will receive motors—Thursday night—are: Evan Voights of 2211 Yeoman St., Waukegan, for a 37" Northern Pike; Dennis Frenel of 3846 Grand Ave., Chicago, for a 23 3/4" Bass; John Vachula of 3846 W. Grand Ave., Chicago, for a 15 1/2" Striped Bass; Marty Kilgroe of 1217 Morton Dr., Venetian Village, for a 16 1/2"

Start Fishing For State Angling Title

Fishing for the 1967 Illinois state individual title and a chance to earn an all-expense trip to the World Series of Fresh Water Angling is underway on Channel Lake and Lake Catherine near Antioch.

Qualifying opened last Monday, (Sept. 11) and will continue daily for 13 days through Saturday, Sept. 23. Thirty qualifiers—two each on week days and five each on the two Saturdays and one Sunday during the trial period, will fish in the finals on Sunday, Sept. 24.

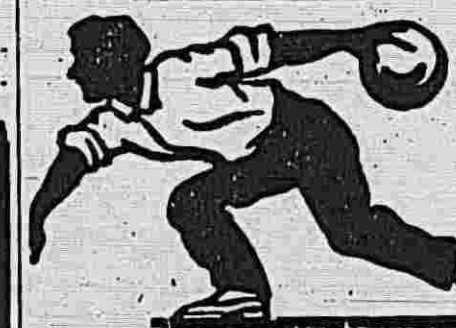

They will be joined by the defending champion, George Kraymer of McHenry, winner also in 1964, who, because of his previous victories, was seeded into the finals. The five other previous champions also have been seeded into the finals.

All resident licensed anglers, 16 years or older, including women, may compete in the qualifying. There is no entry fee. Qualifying fishing is daily from 6 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Anglers, however, may come out any time to try and qualify. Only requirement is that they register at Channel Lake Boat House, to signify their intent before going out on the contest waters.

In addition to being recognized as state champion, the winner will receive a trophy from Barney Shunnesson, operator of the Channel Lake Boat House, and an all-expense trip to the World Series of Fresh Water Fishing on Long Lake, Wis., in Washburn county near Spooner on Oct. 14-15.

Upon registering each contestant will be given a copy of the rules.

Salem Central Loses, 13-12

Terry Nodorf's successful kick for the point after touchdown spelled the difference between defeat and victory for the Jefferson High gridgers, as they defeated Salem Central by a 13 to 12 score last Saturday.

Salem will be trying for their first win of the season as they face the Antioch High team at the Antioch Athletic field at noon Saturday, Sept. 16.

Pitt Johnson of Salem scored a touchdown for Salem in the first quarter on a 5 yard run. Both Salem and Jefferson ran the ball across for scores in the second quarter. Mark Meyers scored Salem's second TD on a 63-yard run. Tom Hetzel carried the ball 9 yards for Jefferson's first TD, followed by Nodorf's kick.

Homemakers Start Fall Lessons

Homemakers enrolled in the University of Illinois Extension classes in Home Economics will begin their fall unit meetings and lessons in September.

Mrs. Helen Volk, Extension Adviser in Home Economics, will give a lesson on the "Homemaker's Role in Home and Community." The lesson begins with a questionnaire which enables each woman to evaluate her activities. This will help her make decisions about her contributions to her home and "community in the world today."

Local leaders from the 22 units will give two lessons. One is on "Family Preparedness During Disaster." The leaders attended a training session on this lesson recently held at the County Extension Office at the Fairgrounds, Grayslake, Mr. Fred Painter of the University of Illinois was one of the speakers. He provided a kit of reading material for each unit member. Others who brought valuable information to the training school were Richard Willer, County Civil Defense Chairman, and George Kramer of the Red Cross Disaster Committee.

Mrs. Richard Wells and Mrs. Larry Jensen, both of Antioch, were among the leaders who attended the training school.

Local leaders are also giving a minor lesson on "Fashion Forecast." Besides illustrating new fall styles, they will discuss a new process for improved washable woollens. They will also explain the new sizing standards for dress patterns to be introduced this fall.

Tours are on the agenda for various groups including trips to New Glarus, Wis.; University of Wisconsin at World Food Exposition, Madison, Wis.; and Haeger Pottery, Dundee, Ill.
